Recruitment to services under Government. Use of Employment Exchange Machinery for

GOVERNMENT OF BOMBAY.

POLITICAL AND SERVICES DEPARTMENT.

Circular No. 9530/34

Bombay Castle, 1st April 1950.

In Circular Memorandum, Reconstruction Department, No. 185 - F, dated the 28th January 1946, all Departments of the Secretariat and all Heads of Departments were asked to notify to the Employment Exchanges all vacancies proposed to be filled in by them. The use of Employment Exchages was at that time confined to war- service personnel only and the orders of Government referred to above, were in pursuance of the Government policy then in force to give preference to war service personnel only and the orders of Government referred to above, were in pursuance of the Government policy then in force to give preference to war- service candidates in making appointmentsto services under it, That policy is no longer in force. The Employment Exchange have also been thrown open to all persons seeking employment.

2 Government has in principle decided to use the agency of the Employment Exchanges as far as possible in the matter of recruitment to services under it and is accordingly pleased to direct that all vacancies, which are not to be filled through the Public Service Commission or by competitive examinations or by promotion or transfers should invariably be notified in good time to the Sub- Regional Employment Exchanges, mentioned in the appendix hereto, as the case may be, and the candidates recommended by them given preference, all other things being equal.
